

Plumbing and Heating Engineers (sub-contract)

HBS Mechanical are now recruiting experienced plumbing and heating engineers across southern England and home counties to join our successful team of quality installers; we have long term projects with good consistent potential earnings of £55k+

Purpose

The role is to carry out installations of plumbing and mechanical services including water, gas and soil systems in new build housing and light commercial developments.

We offer

- Potential earnings of £55k+
- Good commercial priced rates
- Additional variation payments
- Management payments
- Material management payments
- Vehicle provision (details on request)
- Fuel provision

Requirements and Skills

- NVQ or City & Guilds in plumbing and heating
- Gas safe registered. (training and support available)
- CSCS card (assistance provided)
- Unvented Hot water G3 (assistance provided)
- Minimum two years new build plumbing and heating experience with some administration of the drawings and build programs
- Good communication skills
- Driving Licence